Oklahoma TAP Teaching Standards (OTTS)

---

The Oklahoma TAP Teaching Standards (OTTS) were developed to meet the requirements of the model selection criteria for the Teacher Evaluation Framework set forth by the Oklahoma State Department of Education. The OTTS is a modified version of the TAP Teaching Standards utilized by the National Institute for Excellence in Teaching (NIET) nationwide.

Oklahoma TAP Teaching Standards

The Oklahoma TAP Teaching Standards (OTTS) were created and developed specifically for the Oklahoma State Department of Education's Teacher and Leader Effectiveness Commission. The OTTS are based upon the TAP Teaching Standards or TAP rubrics. The performance levels for "Above Proficient" and "Below Proficient" have been explicitly explained in accordance with the Teacher Evaluation Framework/Model Selection Criteria for the Qualitative Measures which includes a five-tier rating system. The Oklahoma TAP Teaching Standards were utilized and tested by a national rater team over multiple observations.

The TAP Teaching Standards were originally developed based on an exhaustive review of studies on teacher performance and guidelines from professional teaching standards associations over a decade ago and have continued to be validated in the field by teachers and impact more than one million students nationally. Research on the connection between instructional practice and student outcomes continues to validate the rubrics' performance indicators as key features of effective teaching practice. Additionally, the TAP rubrics and evaluation process have been shown to be correlated to student achievement at a statistically significant level in two separate studies. In correlational studies by Schacter & Thum (2004) and Daley & Kim (2010), teachers who scored higher on the NIET Teaching Standards tended to have higher student achievement gains. Conversely, teachers who scored lower, tended to have lower student achievement gains.

The TAP Teaching Standards are a component of the TAP System™ which is a comprehensive educator effectiveness model managed and operated by the National Institute for Excellence in Teaching (NIET) across the nation. NIET is a public non-profit 501(c)3 based in Santa Monica, CA.
